

I drive 120 miles every day serving families with children who have disabilities in the surrounding five counties. I hear KLOVE everywhere I go. It helps me stay focused on my purpose and mission. With KLOVE I know every moment in my car will be uplifting, commercial free and God- centered. Many of my friends feel the same.